Minimum wages

Manner of calculating the minimum rate of wages.-

3. (1) for the purposes of sub-section (5) of section 6, the minimum rate of wages shall be fixed on the day basis keeping in view the following criteria, namely:-
 - (i) the standard working class family which includes a spouse and 2 (two) children apart from the earning worker; an equivalent of three adult consumption units;
 - (ii) A net intake of 2700 (Twenty-seven thousand) calories per day per consumption unit;
 - (iii) 66 (Sixty-six) meters cloth per year per standard working class family;
 - (iv) Housing rent expenditure to constitute 10 (Ten) per cent of food and clothing expenditure;
 - (v) Fuel, electricity and other miscellaneous items of expenditure to constitute 20 (Twenty) percent of minimum wage; and
 - (vi) Expenditure for children education, medical requirement, recreation and expenditure on contingencies to constitute 25 (Twenty-Five) percent of minimum wage;
- (2) when the rate of wages for a day is fixed, then, such amount shall be divided by eight for fixing the rate of wages for an hour and multiplied by the number of days in a month for fixing the rate of wages for a month.

Norms for fixation of minimum rate of wages.-

4. (1) While fixing the minimum rate of wages under section 6, the State Government shall divide the concerned geographical area into four altitudes, that is to say upto 8000 ft., from 8001 ft. to 12000 ft., from 12001 ft. to 16000 ft., from 16001 ft. and above.
- (2) The State Government shall by notification constitute a technical committee for the purpose of advising the State Government in respect of skill categorization, which shall consist of the following members, namely:-
 - (i) Labour Commissioner (Sikkim State) – Chairperson;
 - (ii) Joint Secretary or Deputy Secretary or Under Secretary, Labour Department - Member;

- (iii) A representative from the Skill Development and Entrepreneurship Department, Government of Sikkim, dealing with skill development – Member;
 - (iv) Joint Director or Deputy Director of Commerce and Industries Department - Member;
 - (v) 2 (Two) technical experts in wage determination to be nominated by the State Government -Members; and
 - (vi) The Joint Labour Commissioner dealing with wages – Member Secretary.
- (3) The State Government shall, on the advice of the technical committee referred to in sub-rule (2) categorize the occupations of the employees into four categories, namely:- (i) unskilled, (ii) semi-skilled, (iii) skilled and (iv) highly skilled by modifying, deleting or adding any entry in the categorization of such occupations specified in Schedule A.
- (4) The technical committee referred in sub-rule (2) shall while advising the State Government under sub-rule (3) take into account, to the possible extent, the national classification of occupation or national skills qualification frame work or other similar frame work for the time being formulated to identify occupations.

Appointment of the committees.-

5. The State Advisory Board may constitute as many committee or sub-committee under sub-section (5) of section 42 as it considers necessary for the purposes specified in that clause.

Time Interval for revision of dearness allowance.-

6. Endeavour shall be made so that the cost of living allowance and the cash value of the concession in respect of essential commodities at concession rate shall be computed once before 1st April and then before 1st October in every year to revise the dearness allowance payable to the employees on the minimum wages.

Number of hours of work which shall constitute a normal working day.-

7. (1) The normal working day under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 13 shall comprised of 8 (eight) hours of work and one or more intervals of rest which in total shall not exceed 1 (one) hour.
- (2) The working day of an employee shall be so arranged that inclusive of the intervals of rest, if any, it shall not spread over more than 12 (twelve) hours in any day.
- (3) The provisions of sub-rules (1) and (2) shall, in the case of an employee employed in agricultural employment, subject to such modifications as may, from time to time, be determined by the State Government.
- (4) Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to affect the provisions of the Factories Act, 1948 (63 of 1948).

Weekly day of rest.-

8. (1) Subject to the provisions of this rule, an employee shall be allowed one day of rest every week (hereinafter referred to as "the rest day") which shall ordinarily be Sunday, but the employer may fix any other day of the week as the rest day for any employee or class of employees:

Provided that an employee shall be entitled for the rest day under this sub-rule if he has worked under the same employer for a continuous period of not less than 6 (six) days:

Provided further that the employee shall be informed of the day fixed as the rest day and of any subsequent change in the rest day before the change is effected, by display of a notice to that effect in the place of employment at the place specified by the Inspector-cum-Facilitator in this behalf.

Explanation.- For the purpose of computation of the continuous period of not less than 6 (six) days specified in the first proviso to this sub-rule, any day on which an employee is required to attend for work but is given only an allowance for attendance and is not provided with work, a day on which an employee is laid off on payment of compensation under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), and any leave or holiday, with or without pay, granted by the employer to an employee in the period of six days immediately preceding the rest day, shall be deemed to be days on which the employee has worked.

- (2) Any such employee shall not be required or allowed to work on the rest day unless he has or will have a substituted rest day for a whole day on one of the 5 (five) days immediately before or after the rest day:

Provided that no substitution shall be made which will result in the employee working for more than 10 (ten) days consecutively without a rest day for a whole day.

- (3) Where in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this rule, any employee works on a rest day and has been given a substituted rest day on any one of the 5 (five) days before or after the rest day, the rest day shall, for the purpose of calculating the weekly hours of work, be included in the week in which the substituted rest day occurs.
- (4) An employee shall be granted-
- (i) for rest day wages calculated at the rate applicable to the next preceding day; and
 - (ii) Where he works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, then, he shall be paid wages for the rest day on which he worked, at the overtime rate and wages for the substituted rest day at the rate applicable to the next preceding day:

Provided that where-

- (a) The minimum rate of wages of the employee as notified under the Code has been worked out by dividing the minimum monthly rate of wages by 26 (twenty- six); or
- (b) the actual daily rate of wages of the employee has been worked out by dividing the monthly rate of wages by 26 (twenty-six) and such actual daily rate of wages is not less than the notified minimum daily rate of wages of the employee, then, no wages for the rest day shall be payable; and
- (c) the actual daily rates of wages of the employee has been worked out by dividing the minimum monthly rate of wages by the number of days in a month and
- (d) the employee works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, then, he shall be paid, only for the rest day on which he worked, an amount equal to the wages payable to him at the overtime rate; and,

if any dispute arises whether the daily rate of wages has been worked out in accordance with the provisions of this proviso, the Joint Labour Commissioner or Deputy Labour Commissioner or Assistant labour Commissioner of the State Government having territorial jurisdiction may, on application made to him in this behalf, decide the same, after giving an opportunity to the parties concerned to make written representations:

Provided further that in case of an employee governed by a piece-rate system, the wages for the rest day, or the substituted rest day, as the case may be, shall be such as the State Government may, from time to time determine having regard to the minimum rate of wages fixed under the Code, in respect of the employment.

Explanation.-In this sub-rule 'next preceding day' means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day or the substituted rest day, as the case may be; and where the substituted rest day falls on a day immediately after the rest day, the next preceding day means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day.

- (5) The provisions of this rule shall not operate to the prejudice of more favourable terms, if any, to which an employee may be, entitled under any other law or under the terms of any award, agreement or contract of service, and in such a case, the employee shall be entitled only to more favourable terms aforesaid.

Explanation.- For the purposes of this rule, 'week' shall mean a period of seven days beginning at midnight on Saturday night.

Night shifts.-

- 9. Where an employee in an employment works on a shift which extends beyond midnight, then, -

- (1) a rest day for the whole day for the purposes of rule 7 shall, in this case means a period of 24 (twenty-four) consecutive hours beginning from the time when his shift ends; and
- (2) the following day in such a case shall be deemed to be the period of 24 (twenty-four) hours beginning from the time when such shift ends, and the hours after midnight during which such employee was engaged in work shall be counted towards the previous day.

The extent and conditions for the purposes of sub-section (2) of section 13.-

10. In case of employees,-

- (1) engaged in any emergency which could not have been foreseen or prevented;
- (2) engaged in work of the nature of preparatory or complementary work which must necessarily be carried on outside the limits laid down for the general working in the employment concerned;
- (3) whose employment is essentially intermittent;
- (4) engaged in any work which for technical reasons has to be completed before the duty is over; and
- (5) engaged in a work which could not be carried on except at times dependent on the irregular action of natural forces; the provisions of rules 6, 7 and 8 shall apply subject to the condition that –

- (a) the spread over of the hours of work of the employee shall not exceed 12 (Twelve) hours in any day; and
- (b) the actual hours of work excluding the intervals of rest and the periods of inaction during which the employee may be on duty but is not called upon to display either physical activity or sustained attendance shall not exceed 9 (nine) hours in any day.

Longer wage period.-

11. The longer wage period for the purposes of minimum rate of wages under section 14 shall be by the month.

Circumstances under clause (ii) of the proviso to section 10.-

12. An employee shall not be entitled to receive wages for a full normal working day under section 10, if he is not entitled to receive such wage under any other law for the time being in force.

The officer shall record the statement of the witnesses on oath and in cross examination in writing and take the documentary evidence on record.
- (3) The officer shall after the complainant's evidence is complete, provide opportunity of defence to the accused person and the witnesses produced by the accused shall be cross examined after their statements on oath by the complainant and documentary evidence in defence shall be taken on record by the officer.
- (4) The officer shall after hearing the parties and considering the evidences both oral and documentary decide the complaint in accordance with the provisions of the Code.

Composition of offence and imposing fine under sub-section (1) of section 56.-

47. (1) An accused person desirous of making composition of offence under sub-section (1) of section 56 may make an application in Form VI electronically or otherwise to the Gazetted Officer notified under said sub-section (1).
- (2) The Gazetted Officer referred to in sub-rule (1), shall, on receipt of such application, satisfy himself as to whether the offence is compoundable or not under the Code and if the offence is compoundable and the accused person agrees for the composition, compromise the offence for a sum of fifty per cent of the maximum fine provided for such offence under the Code, to be paid by the accused within the time specified in the order of composition issued by such officer.

- (3) Where the offence has been compromised under sub-rule (2) after the institution of the prosecution, then, the officer shall send a copy of such order made by him for intimation to the officer referred to in sub-section (1) of section 53 for needful action under sub-section (6) of section 56.

CHAPTER VII

MISCELLANEOUS

Payment of Wages.-

48. Where the employees are employed in an establishment through contractor, then, the company or firm or association or any other person who is the proprietor of the establishment shall pay to the contractor the amount payable to him or it, as the case may be, before the date of payment of wages so that payment of wages to the employees shall be made positively in accordance with the provisions of section 17. It shall be the responsibility of the employer to make payment of all wages required to be made under this Act in case the contractor or the person designated by the employer fails to make such payment.

Explanation.-For the purpose of this rule, the expression "firm" shall have the meaning as assigned to it in the Indian Partnership Act, 1932 (9 of 1932).

Responsibility for payment of minimum bonus.-

49. Where in an establishment, the employees are employed through contractor and the contractor fails to pay minimum bonus to them under section 26, then, the company or firm or association or other person as referred to in the proviso to section 43 shall, on the written information of such failure, given by the employees or any registered trade union or unions of which the employees are members and on confirming such failure, pay such minimum bonus to the employees.

Inspection scheme.-

50. (1) For the purposes of the Code and these rules, there shall be formulated an inspection scheme by the Labour Commissioner (Sikkim) with the approval of the State Government.
- (2) In the inspection scheme referred to in sub-rule (1), apart from other structural facts, number shall be specified in the scheme for each Inspector-cum-Facilitator and establishment.

Repeal and Savings:

51. The Equal Remuneration Rules, 1976, the Sikkim Minimum Wages Rules, 2005 and the Sikkim Payment of Wages Rules, 1992 are hereby repealed:

Provided that, the said repeal shall not affect,-

- (a) the previous operation of the said rules or anything duly done or suffered thereunder, or
- (b) affect any right, liability or obligation acquired, occurred or incurred under the said rules.
